

STOA Working Breakfast

VACCINE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT IN EUROPE

Tuesday, 8 November 2016, 8:00 – 9:00

European Parliament, Brussels, Henry Spaak Building, room 7C050

PROGRAMME

CHAIR: Paul Rübige, MEP & STOA Chair

8:00 – 8:05

Welcome and introduction

Paul Rübige, MEP & STOA Chair

8:05 – 8:15

Vaccines: a strategic industry for Europe

Patrizia Toia, MEP & Vice-Chair, Committee on Industry, Research and Energy

8:15 – 8:25

Vaccines, is the reality exceeding the dream?

Rino Rappuoli, GlaxoSmithKline Vaccines, Italy

8:25 – 8:35

Opportunities for vaccine research in Europe

Arnd Hoeveler, European Commission, DG Research & Innovation

8:35 – 8:50

The ADITEC success story

Donata Medagliani, University of Siena & Sclavo Vaccines Association, Italy

Peter Andersen, Statens Serum Institut, Denmark

David Lewis, University of Surrey & Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, UK

8:50 – 9:00

Q&A session & closing remarks

Paul Rübige, MEP & STOA Chair